

Santa Barbara Women Lawyers
Proudly Presents

Gayle Binion, Ph.D.

UCSB Professor of Political Science, emerita American Politics, Public Law, Law & Society, Feminist Jurisprudence

Women and the Law: Looking back, looking forward.

When: August 28, 2018, 5:30-7:00 p.m.

Where: Santa Barbara Eastside Library, 1102 E. Montecito Street, Santa Barbara California, 93103

What: Professor Binion will be providing our members with a presentation focused on how the status of women has, and has not, changed since the “modern” women’s movement grew out of the civil rights and anti-war movements of the 1960s. Issues of wide-ranging concern will be addressed including reproductive freedom, employment, political power and how strides toward equality have often been, and continue to be, met with steps back.

Admission for this event is FREE! Complimentary refreshments will be served. Space is limited and preference will be given to SBWL members and their guests. Please RSVP to sbwl.admin@gmail.com by August 24, 2018.
